Attorney General to address law enforcement and health professionals at Sex Assault Conference

(Phoenix, AZ—November 14, 2003) Attorney General Terry Goddard will address law enforcement, health professionals, prosecutors, behavioral health practitioners and advocates attending the Sexual Assault conference on Tuesday, November 18.

Arizona's Third Annual Sexual Assault Conference is being held November 17-19 and is sponsored by the Governor's Office, Attorney General's Office and Arizona Department of Public Safety.

"As Attorney General, I am committed to collaborative approaches that promote awareness, such as the Arizona Sexual Assault Network and the Statewide Sexual Assault conference, bringing together community professionals to promote a coordinated response to victims of sexual assault," said Goddard.

The conference is being held at the Black Canyon Conference Center, 9440 25th Avenue in Phoenix.
